

Farewell function of the MCA 8th batch (2007-2010)

Shri S M Shah, Director, AES awarding best SDP-II project award to Ms. Khushbu Raghuvanshi during the farewell function

A day when the heart is filled with pride and satisfaction wrapped in shades of melancholy, comes in the life of every successful student. This is the day of farewell. AES Institute of Computer Studies organized farewell function for MCA 8th batch on 28th June, 2010 at the institute. Shri S M Shah, Director, AES was the chief guest and enlightened the occasion with his presence. The function started by offering prayer to the All Mighty, followed by farewell speech given by Ms Axita Shah, faculty member, AESICS. Mr. Darshit Joshi, General Secretary of the college welcomed the chief guest with bouquet of flowers.

A photo presentation of the different activities done by students and their past college days provided a nostalgic glimpse of the student life in past three years in AESICS. The photo presentation was followed by sharing of students experiences. For students, it was a moment of immense joy and pride for a successfully completing the MCA program and look ahead towards a bright future. There was also a feeling of sorrow for departing from friends and all other members of the institute to whom they were so closely acquainted. All faculty and staff members had similar feelings for the students and extended best wishes to the students. The faculty speech was followed by a prize distribution ceremony to felicitate top academic achievers and student counsel members. Top three SDP (System Development Projects) in MCA Semester-VI, Semester-V and academic rankers in MCA Semester-V in the Institute were awarded with trophy and certificates. Mr. Paresh Mayani and Ms. Vigna Shah were also congratulated for winning the first and second prize respectively in the "State level MCA Best Project Competition-2010 organized by CSI-Ahmedabad Chapter in association with AESICS-CSI Student Branch.

Mr. Bipin Mehta, Director, AESICS addressed the students by congratulating them for good performance in exams and made them aware about the upcoming opportunities and challenges that they are going to face in their carrier ahead. He suggested the students to be honest and work hard with dedication to achieve their career goals. Director's speech was followed by the felicitation of Shri S M Shah, Director, AES on completion of his tenure with AES. Mr. Bipin Mehta shared his work experience with Shri S M Shah as Director, AES and expressed sincere gratitude for all the support and encouragement provided by him in the growth and development of the Institute. Mr. Aditya Patel, AESICS and Ms. Henna Timani, HLICA offered their best wishes to Shri S M Shah on behalf of MCA and BCA staff members respectively. The chief guest of the function, Shri S M Shah addressed the students and encouraged them to set higher goals and make sincere efforts to achieve them. He also acknowledged the very good support and cooperation of Director and staff members of AESICS and HLICA during his tenure as Director, AES. Vote of thanks was proposed by Mr. Bipin Mehta, Director, AESICS.